Tailored legal services for start-ups

A FLYING START

The FLY program, created in 2014 by the KOAN Law firm, aims at providing - start-ups and young innovative entrepreneurs - tailored legal services, that will assist and support them in establishing their business. A proper legal framework will not only protect their business as from the beginning, but will also allow their business to grow successfully.

KOAN is a business law firm based in Brussels and Paris and operating for local and international clients. KOAN is recognized for its top tier services in Intellectual Property, Data Protection & Privacy, Corporate & Tax Law, Employment Law, Commercial Law, Litigation, Mediation & Arbitration, Regulatory, Public & Administrative Law, Real Estate, Criminal Law, European and Competition Law and Trade Practices.

KOAN has built its strong reputation on an in depth knowledge of key industries such as the Automotive, Technology, Media and Telecommunications industries. Over the years its notoriety has extended across many more sectors, including the Fashion, Design & Luxury Goods, Retail, E-commerce, Real Estate, Non-profit & Trade Associations, Public sector and Leisure industries.

The benefits of FLY:

The FLY program gives you access to experienced lawyers, who have been advising companies at all stages in their corporate life cycle. KOAN's legal team understands the legal issues often faced by start-ups and can give advice at every stage.

1. Free access to legal documents/templates: e.g. : Commercial contracts, Terms of sale, Website Terms and Conditions, employment contract, etc.
2. Free service: first intake meeting at no cost
3. Tailored budget to your needs
4. Advice that is ready to go: solution oriented, guiding you in decision making
5. Access to Koan's established network of clients
6. A single point of contact
